ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Home is owned and occupied by the homeowner
- Home is not up for sale or pending foreclosure
- Have not had weatherization since September 30, 1994, to present

INCOME ELIGIBILITY – You are income eligible if your annual income is under the following guidelines based on household size:

Persons	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9+
Annually	$ 17,235	$ 23,265	$ 29,295	$ 35,325	$ 41,355	$ 47,385	$ 53,415	$ 59,445	$ 6,024 Each

Automatic eligibility, regardless of total household income, if a person in the household receives social security DISABILITY.

Renters – Renters are eligible to apply as well; however, their landlord is required to pay 50% of the HVAC/Mechanical costs accrued. The landlord must sign paperwork agreeing to this before an application is completed.

What will Weatherization accomplish for your home?

The overall goal on every home is to make the home more energy efficient. If your home is more energy efficient, you may pay less on your gas and/or electric bills. Measures done to your home may include attic, sidewall, or crawlspace insulation, caulking doors/windows to help make them more air tight, cleaning the furnace, possible furnace replacement, and much more.
